It is generally conceded, we believe, that the results of the study of history in our schools are very unsatisfactory. The pupils neither receive very distinct impressions nor acquire a love for the study of history that will lead them in after years to pursue the subject further. The attempt to enumerate all the minor events of history has oblige Irving, Washington, 1783-1859; Fiske, John, 1842-1901, ed. Publication date. 1887. Topics. Washington, George, 1732-1799.
