I was so excited to find this book because just this week my son started pointing out lower case letters in the text. This book is a beautifully illustrated book with each letter represented on its own page. Pretty standard right? Wrong, although the text below the illustration had both upper and lower case letters, the main illustration is only the lower case letter. This is perfect for children like my son who are just starting to learn their lowercase letters. Alligator Baby by Robert Munsch is a ridiculous story that will hav Snappsy the alligator is having a normal day when a pesky narrator steps in to spice up the story.
