The first things to shift were the doll's eyes, the beautiful grey-green glass eyes. Slowly they swivelled, until their gaze was resting on Triss's face. Then the tiny mouth moved, opened to speak. Dismissing things as ridiculous fearmongering is, in fact, the first symptom of parasitic spider infection—the creature secretes a chemical into the brain to stimulate skepticism, in order to prevent you from seeking a cure. That's just as well, since the “cure” involves learning what a chain saw tastes like. Here are 100+ of the best horror books that are guaranteed to keep you up at all hours of the night.
