Litany of Peace. In peace let us pray to the Lord. For the peace from above, and the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord. For the peace of the whole world, the good estate of the holy churches of God, and the union of all, let us pray to the Lord. For the God-preserved Russian Land and its Orthodox people both in the homeland and in the diaspora, and for their salvation, let us pray to the Lord. That He may deliver His people from enemies both visible and invisible, and confirm in us oneness of mind, brotherly love and piety, let us pray to the Lord. For this city (or this town, or this holy monastery), for every city and country, and the faithful that dwell therein, let us pray to the Lord. Novenas to the Saints. 113. When my poor heart, exhausted by its frequent struggles with the enemies of its salvation, shall feel the pangs of death, Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me. When the last tear, the forerunner of my dissolution, shall drop from my eyes, receive it as a sacrifice of expiation for my sins; grant that I may expire the victim of penance, and in that dreadful moment, Merciful Jesus, have mercy on me.
