Guidelines for Library Services to Older Adults. Computer Training-Facebook class Health Literacy-finding reputable health information resources Book Clubs-social, stimulating Gaming-social/intergenerational/active-board, card and video games Blogging/Memoir writing Financial-nest egg management, working after retirement, tax preparation Learning how to remember-tricks for strengthening memory Outreach-bookmobiles, book groups at senior living facilities etc. (2008). Guidelines for Library and Information Services to Older Adults. Retrieved from http://www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/usa/resources/guidelines/librariservices.cfm The Mayo Clinic. (2010, August, 7). Aging: What to expect as you get older. Donating a Book Donated books are subject to the same selection criteria as books the Library buys. Materials that are not selected will be sent to the Denver Public Library Friends Foundation for use in its semiannual book sales. Adapted from The Seattle Public Library's purchasing guidelines. About the Library. About DPL. Jobs/Volunteer. Work for DPL. Current Openings. Volunteer. Login to the Library Booking System and then select My Bookings, and then click Cancel Booking to cancel any active bookings. When finished, please click the Log Off button to exit the system. If the cancellation is successful, a confirmation email will be sent to you and the study carrel will be released for others. Check In Procedure. At the dedicated workstations in the facilities area or any other Library-provided PC’s installed inside the Library, login to the Library Booking System and use the Check In function at the top to check in. When finished, please click the Log Off but Schoof Library Journal, The Horn Book, The Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books, Publishers Weekly, Kinkus Reviews and VOYA) • Ordering availability. BPL prefers to purchase through established library book vendors (e.g., Baker & Taylor). The librarians who select materials consider and order thousands of titles each year. For this reason, the library does not notify individual authors or publishers of the order decisions made about each of the many titles it is asked to consider for purchase. Records for titles that are selected can be viewed in the BPL catalog (https://borrow.bklynlibrary.org/rls/iii/encore/?lang=eng) within six months of receipt of the material. bklynlibrary.org. The IFLA Guidelines for Library Services for Young Adults define the library mission in the following: "The mission of the library with respect to young adult services is to assist the individual in achieving a successful transition from childhood to adulthood by providing both access to resources, and an environment that meets the specific needs of young adults for intellectual, emotional, and social development.". These Guidelines for Young Adult Library Services in Russian Public Libraries (hereinafter referred to as Guidelines) are a result of collaboration. The document has been developed...