The Dissertation on Ethics is divided into two parts. Part First — The Theory of Ethics — gives an account of the questions or points brought into discussion; and handles at length the two of greatest prominence, the Ethical Standard, and the Moral Faculty. Part Second — The Ethical Systems — is a full detail of all the systems, ancient and modern, by conjoined Abstract and Summary. It is not solely with the view of furnishing a complete manual of Mental and Moral Philosophy, that I have included in the same volume, a System of Psychology, and an exhaustive Dissertation on Ethics.
