Students And Researchers Of English Literature And To Particularly Those Interested In T.S. This book contains all the plays and poems of T.S. Eliot. Some of the works are quite complex to understand and some are written in Latin and French and some Greek. It would have been nice if the foreign language ones could have been translated in a separate chapter. A good set of explanatory notes would also have been useful. A highly interesting book for any student of the poets. An interesting read to make you think. The genius T.S.Eliot wrote one of the greatest collection of poems, giving one a great deal to think about and consider about their very existence, he asks countless pertinent questions about the
